

Harold “Sam” Luther Family

3-29-1911 1-25-2007

Harold “Sam” Luther was the 9th surviving child of Robert and Ella Luther, and was always known as “Uncle Sam” Sam became a Pennsylvania State Trooper and served most of his adult life in the PA State Police. Early on, Sam was in the mounted horse patrol and did trick riding in the State Police sponsored rodeos.

Sam was involved in quite a few high profile crime cases, including the “turnpike bandit” case, and the “Karen Mock” murder in Johnstown, PA .

Sam married Rebecca Weneck and they had two children. Tom, and Cheryl, or Cherie. For most of his career they lived in Greensburg, PA, until he retired and moved to Sarasota, FL. Sam and Becky later moved back to PA and resided at the Arbutus Park Retirement Community in 2001 to live on the same street where several of his brothers had resided. Sam was a great storyteller, and enjoyed making hand carved wood spirit “walking sticks” in his retirement.

Sam spent his final years at Arbutus with his younger brother George. They enjoyed retelling stories about “life on the farm” to the numerous nieces and nephews who also now lived at Arbutus.

One of his joys was going out to dinner at the Chinese Restaurant with his brother George, and daughter Cherie, along with Roger and Shirley.

Harold "Sam" Luther Family

3-29-1911 1-25-2007

Here are a number of pictures with

Sam and his family

The above picture, taken at the Luther Reunion in 2001, shows Uncle Sam with both his children and their spouses. To his left is Cherie, and husband Corvin Miller, and to his rear is son Tom and his wife Andrea & Cheries son Scott, Riesa, and sons David and Anthony.

Here Uncle Sam is joined by his brother George, Tom, Andrea, and Scott.

Uncle Sam at Arbutus

Harold "Sam" Luther Family

3-29-1911 1-25-2007

Above is a picture of Sam at Christmas time, 2005, at Arbutus.

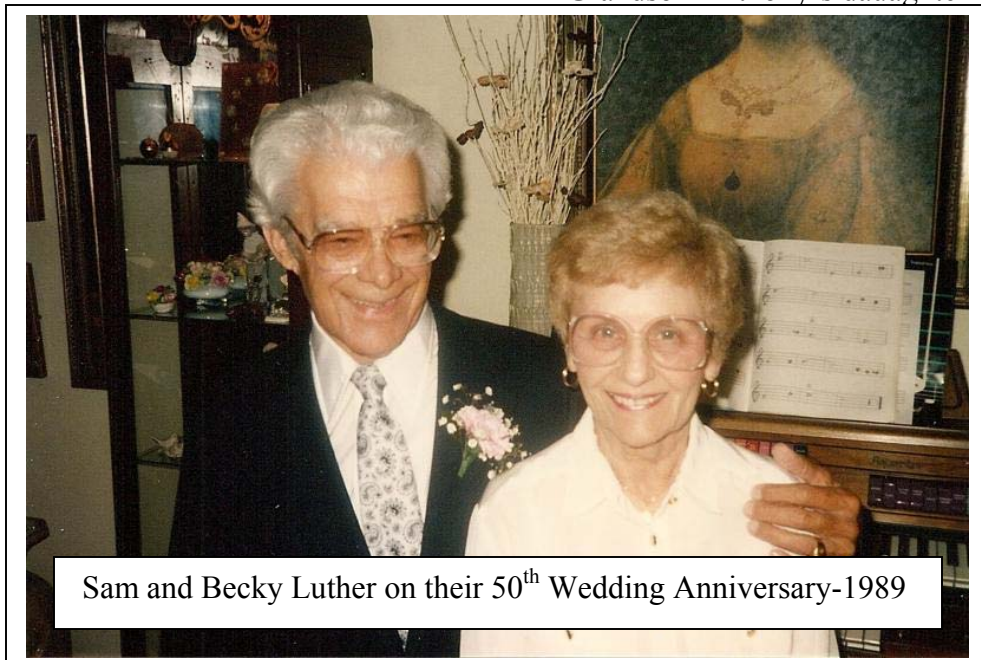

Sam with his daughter Cherie at Arbutus

In the picture above, Cherie poses with Ciara, her grand-daughter, and Todd, her son, at Ciara's graduation from Army Basic Training in 2008.

Cherie's Great Grand-daughter Amanda Grandson Anthony's daughter

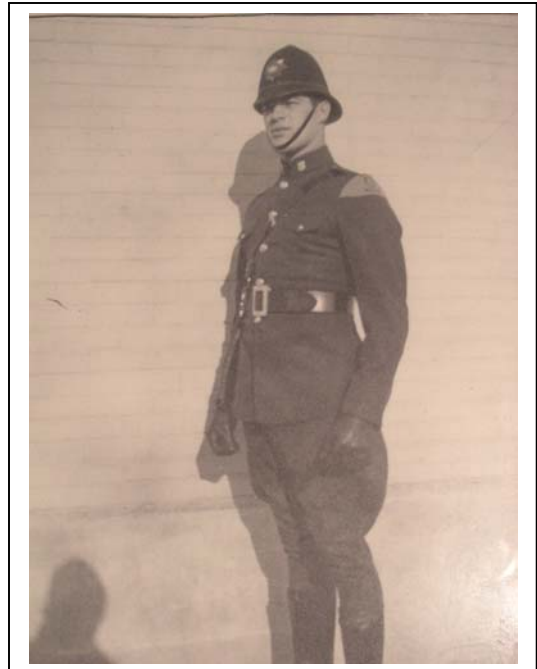

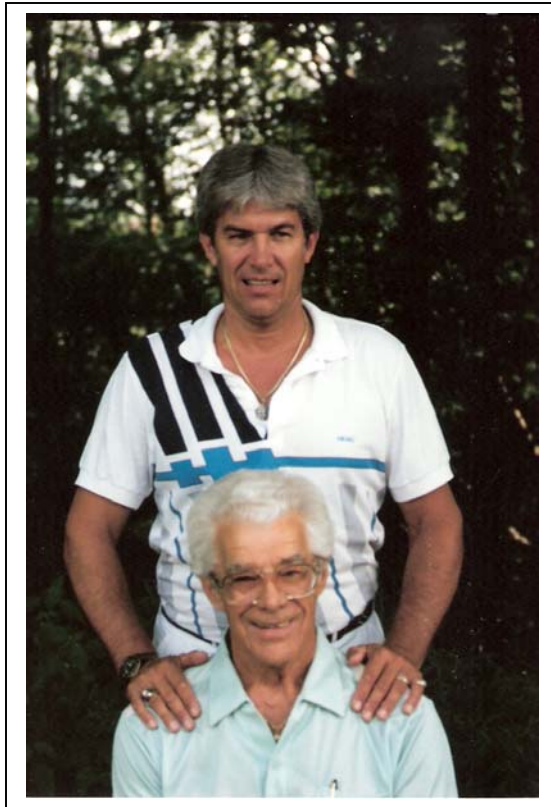

Sam and Becky Luther on their 50th Wedding Anniversary-1989

Harold "Sam" Luther Family

3-29-1911 1-25-2007

Becky and Sam at a Luther Reunion in the late 1990's

Above, Sam as a PA State Trooper
...in 1937 Left: Tom and Sam

Harold "Sam" Luther Family

3-29-1911 1-25-2007

Left, Tom and Andra Luther

Above, Cherie Miller with cousin Martha at the 2005 Luther Reunion.

Left: Uncle Sam with his children, Cherie and Tom. Standing, Nick, David, and Scott at the Luther Reunion in 2005